

SPECIAL HERDSMAN AWARDS

The listed donors, in cooperation with the Heart of Illinois Fair, will award a suitable award in the following four Departments to the exhibitor presenting his herd or flock in the most attractive manner.

Every exhibitor in each department is eligible to compete. The exhibitors will be judged by a Special Livestock Judging Committee. They will take into consideration the following:

- < The daily appearance of the exhibit and personnel
- < The availability of the person in charge of the herd or flock
- < The cooperation of the exhibitor with all show officials
- < The placing of the exhibitor's animals and awards received in their various lots
